Thank You, May! You Were Beautiful.

As the last golden days of Autumn settle in, we're taking a moment to pause, reflect, and share some of the joy and growth the month of May brought. Life, like the seasons, is always shifting—and this month reminded us just how beautiful those shifts can be.

Here's a little peek into my May...

May has been overflowing with beauty—celebrations that stirred our hearts, cozy evenings with friends, and memories we'll be holding close for a long time. We laughed, we danced and we ate. Here's a little love note from us to you, capturing all the magic May gave us.

We had the honour of watching two of our dearest friends get married. Their story started years ago... at one of our pop-ups. "And to think it all started at a coffee shop." We can still remember that Pop-up like it was yesterday. The wedding was nothing short of amazing. The ladies wore beautiful blush-toned dresses, and the guys looked handsome in their black tuxedos, we witnessed vows that melted everyone's hearts, and prayers that wrapped the ceremony in love. Watching their journey come full circle filled us with gratitude and awe.

We also celebrated two of our friend's birthday with a cozy fur party—yes, you read that right! Everyone had to rock a bit of fur. It was a chilly night filled with laughter, warm hugs, and the most delicious homemade burgers. We watched the sunset from a magnificent view of Pretoria. There were chit-chats around the fire and we cozied up on the couch with tv blankets. That sounds like our kind of party. It's these simple, joy-soaked moments that remind us why we love gathering so much.

♥ CHAMPIONS ONCE AGAIN! 🖐️

🧡 Champions Once Again! 🙌

In case you missed it—Mamelodi Sundowns clinched the Betway Premiership title, making it 8 league championships! They lifted the brand new Betway Premiership trophy. The trophy was crafted by internationally renowned South African artist Nelson Makamo, known for his evocative artworks that capture the essence of African life. Makamo's involvement brings a deep cultural resonance to the trophy, reflecting the spirit and passion of South African football. The new Betway Premiership trophy stands as a testament to the fusion of art and sport, celebrating the heritage of South African football and inspiring future generations. What a time to be part of the Yellow Nation. The energy, the pride, the Ubuntu— football continues to remind us of the power of community.

May called for comfort food, and we answered. We made a delicious Rooibos Sweet Alabama Pecan Bread for Mothers Day. You need to try that recipe. Speaking of recipes, we joined a great #BurgerFriday campaign by Checkers60. It was so much fun sharing our favourite burger recipes and of course, staying in.

We are so excited to announce the Laager Rooibos wellness challenge. It is especially curated for the Month of June. Its all about wellness and self-care, and displays really creative ways to use Rooibos tea — so be sure to hang around our socials to get involved. There are beautiful prizes to be won.

May was a month that reminded us of the power of love, the joy of friendship, and the beauty of showing up for each other. Let's carry this energy into June—with full hearts and open hands.

With so much love.

Lebo & Tebo

A top-down photograph of a loaf of rooibos sweet Alabama pecan bread. The loaf is partially sliced, revealing a moist, golden-brown interior studded with pecans and rooibos. The bread sits on a light-colored wooden cutting board. To the left of the board, a small metal bowl is filled with loose rooibos leaves. Below the bowl, a wooden honey dipper with a fluted end lies on a folded, light-colored linen napkin. In the bottom left corner, a small glass jar is filled with a dark, rich liquid, likely rooibos tea, with a small amount of foam on the surface. The background is a light, speckled countertop.
